

COMMONWEAL ARMY.

Coxey and His Followers Arrive at Alliance.

COLD AND DISAGREABLE MARCH.

General Coxey Goes to Chicago, but Will Return at Once—Governor Hogg Determined to Bring Railroad Officials to Grief Should Frey's Men Suffer—El Paso Interested.

ALLIANCE, O., March 28.—Twelve miles of the longest free lunch route on record was mapped out for the Coxey caravan yesterday. January weather was also on the programme, but the sympathy of the people along the line line of march is making it possible for the men to progress without any particular hardship. They were cheered by sausage, ham, dry bread and black coffee. Soap is still among the things invisible and there is no danger that anybody is going to mistake this for a turnout of plutocrats. Only the hobo contingent are provided with soap and they are not particular about using it. All luxuries are carefully treasured, and the health of the marchers has been remarkably good considering their experience. Meals that were irregular when they were provided at all and sleeping on frozen ground with a scant covering of straw is not ordinarily considered conducive to a man's physical well being. There is no physician in the company, unless Dr. Kirtland, the nervous little Pittsburg astrologer in a big gray overcoat, is an M. D. Louis Smith, the mysterious individual who is the military head of the enterprise, has a cold attended by a husky voice. His clear, ringing tones are less penetrating than they have been. Smith's attire is still immaculate, but defects have been discovered in his military leadership. He has the erect, decisive bearing of a man accustomed to command, but his system varies a little from Upson's tactics. He can start and halt the column, direct them to right-face and left-wheel, but he can not direct the execution of more intricate movements. Not only is he unknown, but the big shaggy dog that accompanies him is without a name. He is savage in denunciation of the plutocrats and the subsidized press and reckons that they will all be swept away. Smith is a man of very positive temperament and is intense in his hatred of those who have money.

At noon yesterday the Commonweal arrived at Maximo, the capital of Washington township. Walking was an agreeable experience, but the riders had a chilly time of it. Marshal Browne led his stallion over a large part of the route. The territory traversed presented a deserted appearance. A thin covering of snow was on the fields and not to exceed a dozen people had assembled to see the Commonweal march by. Flocks of chickens strutting around red barns were the subject of remark, but no man undertook to molest them. Army songs were rendered under the direction of Astrologer Kirtland's newly organized glee club.

As a rule people viewed the caravan from their houses, and not to exceed a dozen viewed it from the roadside. At Maximo about 50 men had assembled, and owing to the small number in the place the holding of a meeting was abandoned. The march is conducted at the rate of about three miles an hour. At the end of almost every mile a halt is called to rest the men and horses. A score of men was all that witnessed the departure from Louisville.

The army arrived at Alliance late last night footsore and weary and at once set out on a begging expedition. Toes have begun to peep from shoes that have yielded to the hard service of the march, and the lack of clothes is still severely felt. Clothing and other supplies were asked for, but little was obtained. No dinner, and only cheese, bread, potatoes and black coffee on the evening bill of fare has caused much grumbling and it may lead to open mutiny.

General Coxey went to Chicago yesterday, but will be back today. He and Browne addressed a crowd in the opera house yesterday afternoon. Browne in a plausible defense of the crusade brought out applause and $10.00.

Governor Hogg and the Railroad.

AUSTIN, March 28.—Governor Hogg is still worked up over the way the Southern Pacific road has disposed of Frey's regiment. He says in plain words that if the officials of the road succeed in starving the men to death on that barren waste he will make them suffer for it. It takes the last dollar he has on earth. The governor is consumed and appalled for the stand he has taken in the matter. Some opponents of the governor say he is preparing to run for president of the United States on the workingman's ticket.

Frey's Regiment at Sierra Blanca.

EL PASO, Tex., March 28.—General Frey and his regiment are now at Sierra Blanca, 20 miles from Finley. They are no better situated there than they were at Finley. They walked the distance. They are orderly and have not attempted to destroy any property of the railroad.

It is rumored here that the men will abandon the Southern Pacific route and go by the Texas and Pacific to Fort Worth or Dallas.

Citizens of this city have asked the Texas and Pacific officials at Dallas for rates to transport the men and it is believed the road will assist the men.

A collection was taken up to send the men provisions, which will be forwarded at once. The cattlemen at Sierra Blanca donated all the beehives the men required.

Deserters Leaving For Home.

RICHMOND, Ind., March 28.—A detachment of deserters from Coxey's army passed through here for Omaha. They say they are disgusted with the whole business.

Can Gain Nothing.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Senator Peffer says Coxey's move is childish and that he has advised against it, as no object can be attained.

Thirty-Eight Recruits.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Thirty-eight recruits for Coxey's army left Hyde Park police station for the east on a freight train.

WILL MARRY A NOBLEMAN.

A Baltimore Millionaire's Daughter to Wed an Egyptian.

BALTIMORE, March 28.—Hebrew circles are much interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Alberta Ullman, the third daughter of Albert J. Ullman, a millionaire of this city, to Sabit Bey, an Egyptian nobleman and the son of a reigning prince in Cairo. Miss Ullman is about 19 years of age and a strikingly handsome woman of the brunette type. She is a linguist and a fine musician. It was while traveling abroad last summer that Miss Ullman met the Egyptian nobleman. They were introduced to each other at a reception in Paris. It was a case of love at first sight. Sabit Bey is, by religion a Mussulman, and his faith allows him a plurality of wives, but in view of his approaching marriage with an American girl it is not likely that he will seek to avail himself of the liberality of his creed in matrimonial matters.

Last November he paid a visit to this country, and while in Baltimore he was the recipient of many social attentions. He speaks English fluently and in appearance is more like a Frenchman than an Egyptian. He is about 35 years of age and very wealthy. Miss Ullman will sail from New York on April 29 for Paris, accompanied by her father, mother and sister. The wedding will take place in Paris shortly after her arrival and her future home will be in Cairo, where Sabit Bey has a palatial residence.

THE FAMOUS OLD SHIP.

The Wrecked Kearsarge Blown Up and Riddled by the Natives.

BOSTON, March 28.—A dispatch dated Havana, to President Winston of the Boston Towboat company, from the captain of the steamer Orion, says that the United States steamer Kearsarge has been blown up and burned by the natives. The Orion left here March 13 fitted out with every appliance needed to float the wrecked corvette off Rancadero reef. The steamer reached the reef on the 21st and found matters as above stated. She arrived in Havana yesterday at noon. The remnants of the hull below the water line were wrecked and broken, and showed the effects of the explosion of the magazine. Previous to the destruction of the vessel the natives of San Andres island rifled the wreck of everything movable.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and thin. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it swelled and I threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."
